

Who Does God See?

You can be a Christian, yet be wasting your inheritance.

Colossians 1:21-23 “And you, who once were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight— if indeed you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard...”

The nature and character of God: He is Good.

Psalms 100:5 “For the Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting, and His truth endures to all generations.”

Our Inheritance In Christ

Eternal Life: 1 John 5:11-12 “And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.”

AND

Abundant Life: John 10:10 “The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.”

We must see ourselves by faith to take hold of our inheritance.

Don't identify with anything other than God's Word.

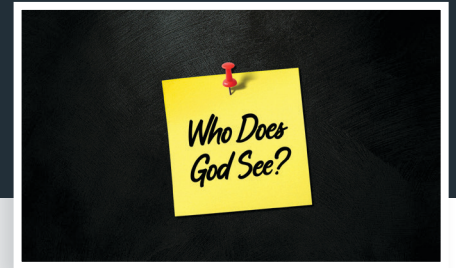

Psalms 103:12 “As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.”

God sees your spirit.

Romans 8:6 “For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.”

When God sees you, He sees Jesus.

2 Corinthians 5:17 “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.”

I AM WHO HE SAYS I AM!

This requires faith.

If you don't read the Will, you won't know your inheritance.

Will = His Word

Discipline turns into desire.

The Word is what transforms your life.

Romans 12:2 "And do not be conformed to the world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God."

God's Word is the foundation of everything.

It must be your final authority, definition of identity, and source of life!

You're worthy of His inheritance.

Luke 15:20-23 "And he arose and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and sandals on his feet.'"

Colossians 1:21-23 "And you, who once were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight— if indeed you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard..."

Do not form your identity by what you see. By faith, see yourself as God does.

In His sight, you are worthy of His inheritance.

So, who does God see? He sees His child who is worthy of His inheritance.
